HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

As I was thinking about some helpful advice to offer fathers in this post. Below is a list of twelve practical suggestions that come from my vivid memories of how my dad passed along important life lessons to me and my siblings. Much of what you will read below was for our personal benefit when we were younger, but he also taught us what we should teach our (own) children as we reached adulthood. I think we could all make a similar list from our collective past and I hope you find this to be useful.

- ◆ Model the right behaviors, lead by example, and avoid “Do as I say, not as I do!”
- ◆ Teach the importance of faith, values, and the difference between right and wrong.
- ◆ Encourage excellence and independent thinking.
- ◆ Listen to their thoughts and ideas with patience and no judgment.
- ◆ Love your children without reservation, but also enough to say no when necessary.
- ◆ Expose them to God, nature, beauty, art, music, history, and different cultures.
- ◆ Give them quality time. Make family time the alternative to unhealthy habits.
- ◆ Instill an appreciation for hard work and how to be responsible with money.
- ◆ Create boundaries and explain the rules. Discipline is important.
- ◆ Respect your elders and authority. Be polite, courteous, and helpful to all.
- ◆ Inspire your children to give back to the community and help others.

Challenge kids to develop their minds.
Fr. Alexander Muddu.

2023 Annual Appeal

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

“As you go, make this proclamation: ‘The kingdom of heaven is at hand.’” MATTHEW 10:7

Many of us take our lives for granted. We think we have plenty of time to “repent.” Maybe we should live with a little more urgency in making things right with God. This is the difference in living our discipleship out of obligation versus out of love. Obligation implies we do the minimum required. Love implies we want a relationship. God wants us to be with Him in Heaven forever, but He also wants to be in relationship with us right now, while we are on earth. Start this second – invite the Lord into your heart.

As always, prayer is an important way Catholics can respond to any crisis as we express our dependence on God. We continue to stand in solidarity with all those affected by the COVID disease as well as those health care professionals who care for them. We ask parishioners to keep these people in mind in your daily prayers.
